The Wheaten Bread shall be made in loaves of 2lbs., and the Mixed Bread in loaves of 3½lbs. each, and baked twenty-four hours before being issued; and parties tendering are requested to observe, that the most rigid adherence to the conditions as to the quality of the bread, shall be invariably enforced.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

11. Parties tendering may do so by either of the three following modes, at their option, viz.:—
1. The whole of the Supplies of every description, in each District, may be included in one tender as at present.
2. Or the supplies may be tendered in subdivisions, as below, by a separate tender for each sub-division, viz.:—
 1. The Military Ration.
 2. The several Rations for Exiles and Convicts, as described from 2 to 11 inclusive.
 3. The Ration of Forage.
 4. The Ration of Fuel and Light
 5. The Supplies for Hospitals.
 6. The Supplies for Naval Purposes and Penal Settlements.
 7. The Supplies for General Purposes.
3. Or the various articles comprising the several Rations referred to, as well as all those required for Hospitals and other purposes, may be tendered separately or singly, by weight and measure. The undersigned reserving to himself the power of accepting Tenders for supplying by any of these modes which he may find most expedient.

12. Contractors shall have at all times on the spot pointed out for their Stores by the Dep. Com. General, a supply of fourteen days in reserve, in the care of a competent agent, to whom reference may be had in the Contractor's absence, in default of which, the Commissariat Officer, or other duly authorised person, may purchase at his, the Contractor's, expense, such articles as are not forthcoming; and in the event of repeated failures in this respect, together with other causes or dissatisfaction arising from the bad qualities of the supplies as decided by Boards of Survey or arbitrators, it shall be in the power of the undersigned, or his successors in office, to cancel the contract and enforce the penalty.

13. In the event of a difference of opinion between the Contractor and the party receiving the supplies, as to the quality, the same is to be decided according to the practice of the service, by a Board of Survey. But in country districts, where a Board of Survey cannot be conveniently assembled, the party objecting will name one person as Arbitrator, the Contractor or his agent another, and these two will, (previously to any other proceeding on their part) concur in naming a third as Umpire, who in the event of the Arbitrators not agreeing in opinion, will be called upon for his decision, which shall be final.

14. The only question referred to the Board, or to the Arbitrators, will be, whether or not the article objected to be such as, by his contract, the Contractor is bound to deliver; and if the Board, Arbitrators, or Umpire, shall decide that the article is not according to the conditions of the contract, it must be immediately replaced by the Contractor, failing which it will be procured, and the expense charged to his account. In cases where the article is of a perishable nature, or from some other cause injury would be sustained, either by the parties to whom the rations are due, or to the contractor, by waiting for a Board of Survey, the Head of the Department, or the Officer in charge of the party or parties for whom the rations are to be received, shall have power to reject such article or articles as are obviously of inferior quality or in improper condition, it being distinctly understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing; and that the Contractor will have the right to appeal, although, in the mean time, he must take back the rejected article, and supply good in its stead, failing which it will be obtained by the officer or party requiring it, and the expense charged to the Contractor.

15 It shall be in the power of either party to limit the duration of the contract, by giving, in writing, a notice of three calendar months to the opposite party, and to end the contract at the expiration of that period, it being understood that such a notice can be given only from the first day of a month, and within the period for which the Contract is made, or agreed to be made; and not later than the 1st of August.

16. The Contractor shall prepare his own each account monthly, according to the prescribed form: and shall receive payment on the production thereof, with the requisite vouchers in a complete state, before the termination of the succeeding month, always excepting where any purchase shall have been made under the provisions of Article 14 of these conditions, in which case no payment will be made until the claim of Government shall be fully satisfied.

17. The Contractor shall be bound to furnish his accounts for provisions, &c., issued, within 14 days of the expiration of each month, and the sums so due must be drawn from the Commissariat chest at Sydney, within the succeeding month otherwise the amount will be considered forfeited to the public.

18. The value of all packages shall be included in the prices demanded.

19. Persons wishing to tender are requested to apply either at this office or to the Commissariat officers in charge of the several stations, who will furnish them with printed forms for the purpose, and communicate further particulars; and as adequate security will be required for the signing and due fulfilment of the contracts, each tender has an instrument attached, marked B, which must be signed by two competent securities, and properly witnessed, who shall bind themselves under the fixed penalties as laid down in Article 20, that all the conditions and stipulations of the contract shall be well and duly fulfilled, should the tender be accepted. No tender will be attended to unless made out as above directed.

20. The amounts of the bonds required in the several districts are as follows;—if contracted for collectively, viz.:—Sydney, £5000; Parramatta, £1000; Liverpool, Windsor, £500; Hartley, £500; Bathurst, £500; Newcastle, £1000; Moreton Bay, £500; Port Phillip, £500.

21. The contracts and bonds must be executed on or before the 1st March next, otherwise the penalties will be enforced.

22. Tenders, in duplicate, are to be enclosed in a separate envelope, addressed to the undersigned, marked "Supplies for 1848," and no tender made in consequence of this advertisement shall be withdrawn or altered, but notice of those accepted shall be given within eight days of the time of opening.

23. Flour in place of bread to be given for the Military Ration, when required, in the proportion of 14 2-7th ozs., of the former, for 16 ozs. of the latter.

24. The Contractor for the District of Sydney will be bound to furnish the rations and articles particularised under the head of Provisions, No. 1 to 16, not only for the purposes specified, but also for any other purposes of the Military, Naval, Special, and Convict Services, should there be occasion for it.

THE PRELIMINARY MEETING.

WE rejoice that it was in our power to report yesterday, concerning the meeting held on the previous day, for the purpose of considering Earl GREY's outline of our New Constitution, that "although the weather was exceedingly unfavourable, a large number of the most respectable citizens assembled, and that a visible earnestness of feeling announced that the subject was one that came home to the hearts of all present."

This was just as it should be. We see that we were not mistaken in our estimate of the revolutionary character of his lordship's scheme, and of its repugnance to the opinions and wishes of our intelligent fellow-colonists. The people of New South Wales are emphatically a busy people, having their hands full of work, and their heads full of profit and loss. They have no time to waste in political gossip. When they are drawn from their offices, their counting-houses, and their shops, to attend, in large numbers and in bad weather, public meetings of a political character, we may rest assured that, in their view, the question is of no ordinary magnitude. It must be something that tells powerfully upon their understandings—that touches their national feelings to the quick. But when such questions do arise, neither ledgers nor briefs, neither farms nor merchandise, are permitted to stand in the way of public duty. The love of gain is mastered for the time by the love of country. For, enlightened Englishmen, be their occupations what they may, are well aware that without a wholesome adjustment of political rights, there is no security for the free exercise of private industry, nor for the unmolested enjoyment of the fruits which that industry gathers. Especially is this the case in the department of legislation. Let the power to make laws be vested in arbitrary or unskilful hands, and the natural consequence must be, that the statute-book, which ought to be the guardian of private life and the glory of the commonwealth, will become a nuisance and a shame.

The proceedings of the meeting do not offer much scope for comment. Mr. GRANT's resolutions, though embodying sound principles, were so straggling in their range, so declamatory in their tone, so utterly infelicitous in their phraseology, in short, so thoroughly imbued with the spirit of claptrap, that the meeting did well to reject them. They were unworthy of the solemn importance of the subject.

Mr. BLAND was opposed, not only to the threatened transfer of the elective franchise from the present constituencies to Municipal Councils, but also to the erection of a second House. And he was opposed to this erection, not merely upon the ground taken by ourselves—the impolicy of disturbing settled and well-working arrangements—but upon the further grounds that in this particular the form of the Imperial Legislature would not be suitable to our local circumstances, and that, even were a second chamber needed, the colony has not the materials out of which it should be formed. Here we are at issue with him; but as we agree with his conclusion, it would be superfluous to combat his reasons. From this consideration, but chiefly from a wish to avoid anything that might disturb that unanimity with which the great struggle now commenced by the colonists ought to be carried on, we forbear to animadvert upon some other objectionable passages in the honorable gentleman's speech. To his sentiments respecting the main point, however, we subscribe with heart and hand. When he stigmatises Earl GREY's measure as "a direct punishment" where no punishment is deserved—as "a violent subversion of popular rights," and "a virtual disfranchisement" of the colonists—we coincide with him to the letter.

We need not remind the Committee appointed, at the meeting of Wednesday, to prepare resolutions to be submitted to a future public meeting, that there is no time to be lost; for we observe that their first meeting was called for the very next day after their appointment. This shows that they are alive to the importance of prompt action, and that the duties confided to them will be despatched with all practicable celerity.

But Sydney is not the only place from which the colonists should lift up their voice on this all-interesting question. The country towns and districts ought to come forward. For though it is true that the petition got up in Sydney may be signed by those who reside elsewhere, yet it should not be forgotten that the more numerous the petitions are, the more powerful will be their effect. Let them be poured forth, therefore, from all quarters of the colony. And let the gentlemen of the interior bear in mind how essential it is that not a moment should be lost.

We have adverted to the desirableness of unanimity in this struggle. And in order that unanimity may be preserved, we would earnestly exhort all who may take part in the business of public meetings, to confine themselves strictly to the subject, and to avoid, with the utmost care, those disputed and disputable topics which would give rise to angry feelings. Our object is to avert a danger common to us all; let us therefore endeavour so to concentrate our attention upon that one object, that we may speak and act as one man.

IMPORTANT REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE LICENSED OCCUPATION OF CROWN LANDS.

(From a Supplement to the Government Gazette.)

CROWN LANDS BEYOND THE SETTLED DISTRICTS.

(TENDERS FOR RUNS.)

COLONIAL Secretary's Office, Sydney, 1st January, 1848.—His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the 9th day of March, 1847, has been pleased, with the advice of the Executive Council, to establish the following regulations for the receipt and disposal of tenders, as well for forfeited or vacated runs, as for new runs.

I.—FORFEITED OR VACATED RUNS.

1. On the receipt of a notice from any person, of his desire to purchase the lease of a run, which, after having been occupied, may have fallen vacant, either by forfeiture or surrender, and to the leasing anew of which no objection shall arise, a notice will be issued in the Government Gazette, describing the boundaries and grazing capability of the run applied for, stating the maximum number of years for which a lease thereof will be granted, and fixing a time and place, at which sealed tenders, in a prescribed form, will be received from the applicant, and from any other persons desirous to enter into competition with him, for the purchase of the lease of the described run.

2. Every such tender must state the term of years within the limit mentioned in the notice, for which it is proposed to take the run, and whether, in addition to the rent required by the Order in Council, it is intended to offer any, and if any, what amount of premium for the lease.

3. The tenders will be opened in the presence of a board of officers appointed by the Governor, and will be disposed of in the manner directed in the 12th section of chapter II. of Her Majesty's Order in Council, a copy of which is annexed to this notice for more easy reference.

4. The lease will be made out as soon after the acceptance of the Tender as may be practicable; and the intending lessee will be required to take up the lease by payment of the first year's rent, and the premium (if any,) within sixty days from the date of the notification of the acceptance of his tender; in default of which the run will be again declared open to public competition.

5. Until the lease has been actually taken out, the intending lessee will acquire no title whatsoever to the occupation of the land tendered for.

II.—TENDERS FOR NEW RUNS.

1. Sealed tenders for new runs will be received on the first Monday in every month—commencing on Monday, the 7th day of February next.

2. The tenders in the prescribed form are to be addressed to this office, if the land be situated in the Middle District, or to the office of his Honor the Superintendent at Melbourne, if situated in the Port Phillip District.

3. The tenders will be opened in the presence of a board of officers appointed by the Governor, and a record will be made in each case of the name of the highest tenderer, so as to secure to him the lease, in the event of the land applied for proving to be available.

3. The description of each run tendered for, will then be forwarded to the Commissioner of the district in which it is situated, with instructions to report whether it comprises any land leased or under promise of lease, or applied for in any other tender, and if it does comprise any such land, that he shall state what should be the run for which it shall be declared competent to parties to tender.

5. If the run applied for be available, the acceptance of the tender will be duly notified to the applicant; and the premium (if any,) and first year's rent, computed in the manner hereinafter described, will be required to be paid, within sixty days from the date of such notification; in default whereof, the run will be declared by advertisement in the Government Gazette to be open for selection, and a day for the receipt of fresh tenders for it will at the same time be announced.

6. Until the first year's rent and premium (if any,) shall have been actually paid, the intending lessee will acquire no right whatever to the occupation of the land tendered for.

7. It is also to be distinctly understood, that the government reserves to itself the right of excluding from any such run, any lands which it may be deemed proper to reserve for any of the purposes referred to in the 9th section of chapter II. of the Order in Council.

8. In any case in which the boundaries of the run tendered for may require to be adjusted, so as to exclude from it any land leased, or under promise of lease, or applied for by another party, the amended description of the run, and the day on which fresh tenders will be received for it, will be publicly notified, in conformity with the provisions in that behalf contained in the 13th section of chapter II. of the Order in Council, a copy of which is annexed to this notice for more easy reference. The interval between such notification, and the day on which the tenders will be received, will not be less than one calendar month.

9. As a considerable interval must be expected to occur in every case, between the acceptance of a tender for a new run, and the survey of its boundaries, and the valuation of its grazing capabilities, which will be requisite for the purposes of a formal lease, and the final adjustment of the rent, the following general rules have been laid down, under which the occupancy of the run during such interval may be granted to the successful tenderer, and the receipt of rent secured to the public.

(1.) Tenders for new runs must contain not only 'a clear description of the run applied for, and the boundaries of the same," but also an estimate of its grazing capabilities; and the tenderer should state that in addition to any premium which he may offer, he will be prepared to pay a yearly rent of ten pounds, with two pounds ten shillings added for every thousand sheep, or their equivalent in cattle, above four thousand sheep or their equivalent, which the run shall be estimated as capable of carrying.

(2.) Until the number of sheep or cattle which the run can carry shall have been determined by valuation in the manner prescribed in Her Majesty's Order in Council, the intending lessee will be required to pay according to his own estimate as given in his tender; and in the event of the rent so paid according to his own estimate, proving to have been less than that determined by valuation, he will be required to make up the difference previously to the execution of the lease.

10. Printed forms of tender for forfeited or vacated runs, and for new runs respectively, may be obtained from the several Commissioners of Crown Lands beyond the settled districts, as well as at the office of the Superintendent of Port Phillip, and at this office.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Extract from Chapter II. of Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated 9th March, 1847.

(Mode of acquiring Leases of forfeited or vacant Runs.)

Section 12.—When any run of lands, after being occupied, shall be forfeited, or become vacant without the previous occupant's having exercised his right of renewal hereinafter reserved, it shall be competent for any person desirous of acquiring a lease of such run of lands, to give notice to the Governor or Officer for the time being administering the government of the said colony, of his, her, or their desire to purchase anew the lease of such run of lands, and immediately after such notice the Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the said colony, shall direct sealed tenders to be sent in at such time and place, and in such form as he shall think fit, by the person giving such notice as aforesaid; and also by such other person (if any) as may be disposed to enter into competition for the said lease; and every tender so to be made shall state the term of years for which it is proposed to take the said run, and whether in addition to the minimum rents required agreeably to the provisions contained in sections 2 and 3 of the second chapter of this Order in Council, it is proposed to offer any, and if any, what amount of premium for the lease; and the said tender or tenders shall be opened in the presence of two or more persons authorised by the Governor, or officer for the time being administering the Government of the said colony, for that purpose; and if there shall be more than one tender, the tenders shall be opened at the same time; and if there shall be only one tender, the lease of the run shall be given to the person making such tender, provided the rent offered shall be admissable under the provisions contained in sections 2 and 3 of this chapter of the Order in Council; but if there shall be more competitors than one, the lease of the run shall be given to such person or persons as shall tender the highest amount of premium for the same; but if two or more tenders shall be made for the same run, and no one of them be higher than all the rest, a future day shall be announced by the persons who open the tenders, on which day it shall again be competent to all persons to offer fresh tenders in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in regard to the first tenders.

(Mode of acquiring Leases of New Runs.)

Section 13.—If any individual be desirous to acquire a new run of land which has never been occupied before, he shall be at liberty to send in a sealed tender, at such time and place and in such form, as may be appointed by the Governor or Officer administering the Government of the said colony for receiving tenders for new runs, and shall set forth in his tender a clear description of the run for which he applies and of the boundaries of the same, and shall state whether, beyond the amount of the rent to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided, he is willing to offer any, and if any, what amount of premium for the lease, and such tenders shall be in all respects dealt with as hereinbefore provided in section twelve of this Order in Council for tenders for runs, which have been forfeited or fallen vacant, save and except that if it shall occur that two or more persons have thus applied for different runs, of which part of one run would include part or the whole of another run, the Governor or Officer for the time being administering the Government of the said Colony, or the person or persons authorised by him to act in this behalf, shall declare what shall be the several runs, for which it shall be competent to parties to tender, and another day shall then be named, at which the previous applicants, and all other persons, shall be at liberty to offer fresh tender for the runs so delivered.

CROWN LANDS BEYOND THE SETTLED DISTRICTS.

(TRANSFER OF RUNS.)

COLONIAL Secretary's Office, Sydney, 1st January, 1848.—His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to establish the following Rules respecting the transfer of Runs beyond the Settled Districts, previously to the issue of Leases, under Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated 9th March, 1847.

1. Demands for leases of runs under the 11th section of Chapter II. of the Order in Council, will (with the exceptions mentioned in the second paragraph of this notice,) be received from those persons only who were the licensed occupants of the runs at the date of the publication of the Order in Council by the Governor. But in consideration of the delay that must necessarily take place in the issue of the leases, any licensed occupant who, after having demanded his lease, may desire to part with his interest in the same, will be allowed to have the lease made out in favour of any person recommended by the Commissioner of the district, on making written application to that effect to the Colonial Secretary, in Sydney, or to the Superintendent of Port Phillip, at Melbourne, (as the case may be) such application to bear the applicant's own signature attested by a Magistrate or a Commissioner of the Supreme Court. In this case the original applicant will be debarred from all further claim to the lease, the right of which will be thenceforth held to be vested in the person in whose favour he requested that it should issue.

2. If, however, a person who had a right to demand a lease of a run in his occupation, under the terms of the 11th section of chapter II. of the Order in Council, shall have died or become insolvent, without having exercised such right, the demand for the lease will be received by the Government from his representative, or from any one coming forward on his representative's behalf. The issue of the lease, however, will, in such case, be suspended, until the claimant thereof shall have satisfactorily proved himself to be the legal representative of the deceased or insolvent person; and, in the meantime, the rent must be regularly paid, in default whereof, the run will be held to have become vacant, and the lease of it will be exposed to sale.

3. The transfer of portions of existing runs will in no way, be allowed by the Government. For each run, now recognised as such, but one lease will issue; and any portion of such run which may not be demised to the lessee of the remainder, will be held to have become vacant, and to be at the disposal of the Government.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

CROWN LANDS BEYOND THE SETTLED DISTRICTS.

(PROPORTION OF CATTLE TO SHEEP.)

Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 1st January, 1848.—Her Majesty, by order in Council, dated the 9th March, 1847, having determined that the rent to be paid for each several run of Crown Land beyond the Settled Districts of New South Wales, shall be proportioned to the number of sheep, or equivalent number of cattle, which the run shall be estimated as capable of carrying, according to a scale to be established for the purpose by authority of the Governor, His Excellency directs it to be notified, that he has, with the advice of the Executive Council, established the following scale for such purpose, that is to say:—

Six hundred and forty head of cattle shall be considered equal to four thousand sheep; and in cases in which the stock upon a run may consist of sheep and cattle, the amount of mixed stock (horses being reckoned as cattle) shall be calculated in the proportion of six hundred and forty head of cattle to four thousand sheep.

By His Excellency's command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.—The committee appointed at the preliminary meeting of Wednesday, held their first meeting yesterday, when it was determined that the public meeting of the colonists should be called for Monday, the 17th instant, at two o'clock. The committee addressed a letter to the Governor, informing him of the measures that are being taken, and pointing out that it will be some weeks until the necessary documents can be prepared, and requesting that His Excellency will use his influence with the Secretary of State, to prevent the proposed measures from being introduced until the petitions and remonstrances of the colonists reach Her Majesty and both Houses of Parliament. The names of James and H. H. Macarthur were omitted in the list of the committee published yesterday.

THE WEATHER.—Last week may be briefly described as the hottest week this season, a sultry haze prevailing night and day. On Saturday and Monday the same weather prevailed, a hot wind blowing throughout Monday afternoon and evening. About midnight on Monday, however, a gentle shower followed a gusty wind, and throughout the night more showers fell. Yesterday was delightfully cool, and showers fell at intervals all day, with every promise at sunset of more rain.—Maitland Mercury.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.—We learn, from the Tablet of the 21st August, that the Rev. Richard Burchall, O.S.B., Superior of the Convent of the English Benedictines, at Douai, has been nominated by the Pope Coadjutor Bishop to Archbishop Polding. The time and place of his consecration have not as yet been fixed; it may probably take place in the colony.

THE WITNESS BOX.—His Worship the Mayor, a few days ago, perceiving that witnesses who had given their evidence were prevented by the crowd from entering the box set apart for their accommodation, gave instructions that it should be kept clear of the interlopers who constantly thrust themselves there, to the great inconvenience of the persons for whose use it was built, and to the no small annoyance of the reporters who occupy the adjoining bench. We trust the constables on duty there will bear this order in mind, and act upon it.

ROBBERY.—Cornelius O'Connor, Catherine O'Connor, Jeremiah O'Connor, and Patrick Hayes, had been apprehended on a warrant at the instance of Mr. Fawcett, residing at Botany,—the woman for stealing a cork-screw and a quantity of porter. It appeared that the female prisoner was on the 1st instant in the service of the prosecutor, and on the afternoon of that day she left his premises, and was followed by her master a short distance into the bush, where were the three male prisoners (one of whom, Cornelius O'Connor, was the husband of the female, and had recently left Mr. Fawcett's service,) and the female seated and drinking porter. On cross-examination by Mr. Little, the prosecutor said he could not take upon himself to swear that they had more than one bottle; that that bottle contained porter, or that, whatever it was, it was not given to the female prisoner by a fellow-servant named Alick, on the order of Mrs. Fawcett. The case was remanded until to-day for the evidence of Mrs. Fawcett.

MURDER.—On Friday, a most melancholy case was reported to the authorities here; Mrs. Neilson, who had since the Wednesday previous been missing, having been found that morning brutally murdered, within half a mile of Clarence Town. J. S. Parker, Esq., the Coroner, held an inquest on the remains the same night, and after a careful investigation the Jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against a man named Patrick Briant, who had been apprehended. Eleven witnesses were examined, and a chain of strong circumstantial evidence collected, by which it appeared that Mrs. Neilson was in Clarence Town on Wednesday last, and left for her home, four miles off, about four o'clock in the afternoon. Briant was also in Clarence Town that afternoon, and was seen leaving about the same hour, but taking a circuitous route, so as to head the unfortunate lady, whose head was found literally smashed in pieces, her body lying about twenty rods from the road. In about an hour after he left, Briant was observed returning, with his face and shirt bloody. Mrs. Neilson has left three young children. She was well connected, having been daughter-in-law to the Rev. Dr. Neilson, of Belfast, Ireland.—Maitland Mercury.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]—COLDS, COUGHS, AND ASTHMA EASILY CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Let no person suffering from Asthma consider himself as past all cure, even if so bad as to be unable to lie down in bed, without trying the effect of these celebrated pills, as a few doses will soon carry off the phlegm and oppression from the chest and produce a healthy action of the lungs. A proper course of this famed medicine will ensure a cure. Inveterate coughs and colds will soon yield to the like treatment. The testimony of the Rev. David Williams, Wesleyan Minister, at Beaumaris, is to this effect most astonishing.

Mr. Newton has requested us to direct the attention of the trade to his sale of drapery goods, this day, at the residence of Mr. Nash, Castlereagh street, at half-past ten precisely.—Communicated.

PARRAMATTA QUARTER SESSIONS.

WEDNESDAY.

THE following cases were disposed of after 4 P.M., at which hour our reporter left Parramatta on Wednesday:—

Bridget Monday, indicted for having received at Windsor, on the 4th October, 1847, a £1 note, the property of one Hugh M'Gregor, of Pitt Town, knowing the same to have been stolen. The jury after being absent for upwards of an hour, returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was remanded until yesterday for sentence, when that of three months' imprisonment with hard labour, in Parramatta Gaol was passed. Mr. Purefoy appeared as Counsel, and Mr. Goold as Solicitor for the prisoner.

Maria Anderson, indicted for having, on the 27th October, 1847, stolen a sheet, the property of Her Majesty, from the Parramatta Hospital, and Bridget Gilmore, indicted for having, on the 29th October, 1847, received the same, knowing it to have been stolen. Addison pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months' imprisonment with hard labour in Parramatta Gaol. Gilmore was acquitted.

William Hooper, indicted for having, on the 1st December, 1847, stolen a shirt, some socks, and some money, the property of one Henry Hamer, of Prospect. The Jury, after being some time absent, acquitted the prisoner.

The Court then adjourned until the following day (yesterday).

THURSDAY.

Before the CHAIRMAN, Dr. ANDERSON, and Mr. ELLIOTT, P.M.

Thomas Humphries, indicted for having forcibly broken into, and entered the dwelling-house of one Thomas Slater, at Campbelltown, and stolen therefrom some flour, tea, and certain silver moneys, guilty. Sentenced to be worked in an ironed gang for the period of three years.

This case concluded the business of the sessions.

The CHAIRMAN, in thanking the Jury for their attendance, adverted to the present being the first assembled under the provisions of the new Act, and from what he had already observed he believed its working was beneficial, and one great advantage that would accrue to jurymen would be, that they would under the new Act be far less frequently taken away from their homes, and to travel such long distances as they had hitherto been accustomed under the enactments of the old measure.

The Court then adjourned sine die.

PARRAMATTA.—THE COURT OF REQUESTS.—The sittings of this Court for the town and district are appointed for adjudication in the £10 Court on Thursday next, the 13th instant, and for those in the £30 jurisdiction on the following day. The cases on the £10 list number, inclusive of three continued from the last sittings, 54; and in the £30 Court, 7.

NEWS FROM THE INTERIOR.

(From our Correspondent.)

BATHURST.

A PERSON named Rembert, who was last week committed by the Bathurst Magistrates to take his trial, complains of the inaccuracy of the report which appeared in the Herald of the 29th December, and forwards the following as a correct account of what took place!—A man of the name of Boswell came to my house and asked me to cash an order for £3 for him, which I agreed to do, when he took property from me to the amount of twenty shillings; I then told him I had not sufficient change to give him, but would do so the next morning, so as to give me time to see if the order was correct; when he again called, I told him it was of no use, as I had presented it to the party it was drawn upon, and there were no funds for it; so offering it back to him, I said you can pay me for the twenty shilling's worth of goods whenever you have money to do so, but here is your order back again. I took the I. O. U. I gave him from off the counter, thinking of course he would not in honesty object to the proposal, instead of which he procured a summons for me, and neither I nor any one in the town can imagine the grounds of committal.

ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE RESPECTIVE POWERS OF MAGISTRATES AND CORONERS.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

GENTLEMEN,—As several new Coroners have been recently appointed in this colony, I have thought the following extract from a recent English newspaper (21st August, 1847,) of a charge delivered by Mr. Justice Pattison to the grand jury at the late summer assizes for the county of Norfolk, might be acceptable to some of your numerous readers.

The learned Judge is reported to have said, "A great many Coroners did not seem to understand their duty at all." If this be the case in England, how much more so in this colony!

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
T. H. J.

"His Lordship, after referring to several cases in the calendar, said he noticed a case of child murder, which he thought was a doubtful one. He mentioned the case because the prisoner was charged on the Coroner's inquisition. He gathered from the depositions that the prisoner had been committed by the magistrates to Wymondham Gaol. It appeared that a good many witnesses had been examined before the Coroner, and afterwards the Coroner thought fit to go to the gaol, and he seemed to have gone there with a view to read the depositions to her, and he seemed to have made a complaint that he was not permitted to see her. He mentioned this because there were erroneous views as to the duties of the Coroner. Now the Coroner had no right to go to the gaol to the woman, and it was quite right that he should have been refused permission to see her. The objects of the examination before the Coroner, and when a prisoner was accused of crime, was quite different. If a person was brought before the magistrates, then there was a specific charge against the prisoner, and he must hear what the witnesses had to say against him, and no evidence was admitted that did not tell against the party which was not legal and proper to be brought before a jury. But the object of the inquiry before the Coroner was entirely different. There was a dead body, and the Coroner was called upon to enquire as to the cause of death. The evidence adduced before the Coroner might be of a nature that would not be received against a person under accusation, because the Coroner's duty was merely to inquire as to the cause of death, and in respect to that there might be hearsay evidence admitted that would be rejected before the magistrates. During the cross-examination before the Coroner, the evidence might tend to a direct proof of something wrong, of some felony, or manslaughter, &c., committed by some individual. That, however, did not change the nature of the inquiry. It did not become a charge before the Coroner against that individual. It still remained only an inquiry as to the cause of death. The Coroners seemed to think that it was their duty to take persons into custody if suspected; but they had no such power at all. It was quite clear that they could not send for such a person as a witness, in order to make him give evidence against himself, unless it happened, as it sometimes did, that an individual, against whom evidence seemed to point, might be necessary for a party's identification. It might then be necessary to have that person, but for no other purpose. The Coroners seemed to fancy that they had power to send for what parties they pleased, and so far as such parties were only required as witnesses they could do so; but the moment that the evidence pointed to any individual as having been guilty of felony, then it was clear that Coroners could not call for that individual. In the case under consideration, there was evidence enough as to the identity of the person; and there was no occasion, therefore, for the Coroner's going to Wymondham, which was what he had no right to do, and the Coroner might, therefore, take it from him, that he had no business to do anything of the kind. A great many Coroners did not seem to understand their duty at all. In the event of the death of the witnesses, the depositions, not having been taken in the presence of the prisoner, would not be receivable as evidence, as the prisoner had no opportunity of cross-examining the witnesses. But when a case came before the magistrates; it was necessary that the witnesses should be examined in the presence of the prisoner, in order that he might have an opportunity of cross-examining them. Then, if the witnesses happened to die, their depositions might be received in evidence."

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

GENTLEMEN,—Permit me through the columns of your journal to give vent to a little of that mental bile so peculiar to John Bull—that of grumbling. It is true I have only had 1s. 3d. abstracted from me by a gentleman in a red coat and laced hat, pretending to have the authority of her Majesty for so doing. What is fifteen-pence? your readers say: pay the money and hold your tongue. Yes, yes, that is all very fine, but when you consider that not only I but perhaps about 500 others during the last week have had to pay the like sum, and that there is every probability five times that number will have to do so during the present year, you will admit that that number of fifteen pences is something to be taken from the pockets of this community by the meanest trick. I had the good fortune to receive a letter the other day from Adelaide by the Juno; I took out a three-penny bit to pay it, but imagine my surprise when 1s. 6d. was the sum demanded, and that for a single letter!! Can you inform your readers under what pretence this extra sum is demanded from our pockets? Is any part of it paid to the spirited proprietor of the steamer as an encouragement for lessening the distance between our coppering neighbours and ourselves? If so, I for one would not grumble very much about it, although I should much more willingly give double the postage for every letter that arrives by steam from England. But I understand Mr. Boyd gets not a farthing, and that the whole of this extra charge goes into the pockets of the Government by a piece of bounce. It appears that the mail by the Juno is taken on shore by the Post Office authorities at Melbourne, and the letters re-stamped, and the Melbourne postage charged. The steamer, however, first calls at Belfast, why is not the mail landed there, and the additional postage from that township placed on the letters? The Government, while they are about it, might as well go the whole animal. I should like to know why letters coming from South Australia that happen to be blessed with a sight of Melbourne should pay anything more for the peep than letters coming from other quarters. Why are not the mails taken out of English vessels that touch there and the additional postage clapped on them. I am surprised they do not compel all the packets to call there on their way to Sydney for the purpose of trebling the revenue from their mails—really it would be a capital spec. Unless the Government be shamed out of this rascally proceeding speedily, the only way I see of remedying the evil is for parties to mark their letters "Not per Juno."

Yours, obediently,
FIFTEEN-PENCE.

GENTLEMEN,—What is the penalty incurred by the owner of a run beyond the boundaries, who sells wheat to his next neighbour, to supply his wants, when that neighbour, having had no crop, cannot possibly procure flour at a less distance than two hundred miles?

ENGLISH EXTRACTS.

THE GREEK LOAN.

(From the Times, August 31.)

THE orations of Demosthenes against his guardians are likely to be revived at Athens, with a very powerful cast. The relieving officers of the Morea are to be brought up for judgment on charges of obduracy, rapacity, and cruelty—M. Eynard impersonating Greece and joining issue against three Crowns. For the instruction of all capitalists who accommodate foreign Governments—for the edification of all philanthropists who take up the cause of distressed nations—and for the warning of all the adroitly generous who think to make professions go as far as practice, and to get to the temple of charitable fame without paying the price of the journey—we publish the letters and condense the facts of this impressive history.

"What did a loan do for Greece?" says Tancred to Fakredeen. Not much, perhaps, but it did a good deal for M. Coletti. Fourteen years ago, sixty millions of francs were subscribed to enable the Peloponessus to set up for itself, and by way of showing that the loan was not like common loans, but a real loan, which was never to be "converted" or repudiated, but some day or other to be repaid, the three substantial names of England, France, and Russia, were attached to the securities exchanged for the cash. The understanding was in this wise:—that the three Powers would guarantee the regular payment of the interest on the loan during the minority of the Archipelago, but that the finance minister of the young State should provide a sinking fund for the eventual extinction of the debt as money grew a little easier in the Morea. The embarrassments of the Greek Government soon displayed that upward tendency which is the characteristic of such negative property, and were of course met by a corresponding compromise on the part of its benefactors. For, as we have recently observed, the privileges enjoyed by States in this respect are singular and valuable. When Bentham was contrasting the respective attributes and advantages of individuals and constituencies, he overlooked the fact, which, indeed, was then hardly established, that the liabilities of the latter are only to be charged upon its superfluities. Nothing but the superabundance of a nation's revenue is considered liable for the discharge of its engagements. Accordingly the three Powers, when informed that Greece had only income enough for its own convenience, acknowledged the inferiority of their own claims, and agreed, in lieu thereof, to accept the "surplus revenue," of the country, whenever and wherever such assets should be forthcoming. It was true that by the letter of the bond the sinking-fund was to take precedence even of the ordinary expenses of the State, but of course a practice so preposterously unusual in international accounts was never carried out. All went on smoothly, therefore, till the discovery of a fact rather too bad for quiet acquiescence. The Athenian budget never did by any accident show a surplus, and though such a result was not of itself very extraordinary, yet there were reasons for believing in a somewhat greater degree of national solvency than had been professed, and at last M. Coletti was pushed rather sharply in the Chamber, by a deputy who produced figures to back his interrogatories. Upon this M. Coletti owned the soft impeachment, but claimed the gratitude of his country for his stratagem, since by this falsification of the public accounts the money had been kept at home, which otherwise, if it had appeared in the shape of a surplus, must have been drained to satisfy rapacious creditors. Now, this was going rather too far. It was exceeding the conventional license of incorporated debtors. "Eat all, but pocket none," was the rule by which they were living, and it was unhandsome to transgress it. We confess to have thought so at the time, nor were we very well prepared for such a coup on this side the Isthmus of Suez. If the Guicowar had so shaped his accounts with the new resident at Baroda, there would have been nothing surprising in it, but it was a bold stroke for M. Coletti. He executed for the benefit of Athens a finer fraud than ever was suggested by Cleon.

The allied Powers looked at the matter in the same light. They of the trio who had value received for all advances and forgivings of course kept their own books, but the English Foreign Secretary peremptorily demanded the payment of the share guaranteed to the lenders by his country. A terrific outcry was raised against this inhuman distraint upon the domestic movables of so famous a nation, and at length M. Eynard stepped forward to show that Philhellenism had not expired at Missolonghi, and that the generosity of one man could shame the avarice of an empire. He remitted to M. Coletti a letter of credit for 500,000 francs, to meet the irresistible exigences of the law. The minister provisional of all the portfolios of Greece was not to be outdone in delicacy or munificence. He gratefully but independently declined, on behalf of his country, to avail himself of the proffered aid, proclaiming, with a pardonable forgetfulness of the premises, that Greece could yet pay its own way. The Bourses of admiring Europe resounded with the praises of this emulative duet, by which, at the cost as it seemed of a few words, M. Eynard had secured the fame of a Lucullus, and M. Coletti the credit of a Phocion; while Lord Palmerston figured as a callous harpy of the law who had been cheated of his prey by the noble interposition of a stranger. The Minister, however, in declining this generous tribute, had obliviously and mechanically slipped into his pocket the magic words and signature which embodied the tangible relief, and our readers may conceive the pain with which, a short time afterwards, he found himself under the necessity of employing the remittance he had so recently refused, and so inadvertently retained. We feel for his anguish while we relate that he was compelled to negotiate M. Eynard's bill, and eventually to transfer it to the account of the British Minister. The consequences of this act are the protests and memorials which we publish to-day. M. Eynard loudly proclaims that he has been misunderstood. His object was "to afford time to the three protecting Powers to open a conference," and if his acts should be so construed as to make him a regular paymaster, he will be a very illused man. He never meant to pay. All he meant was to sanction the Government of Greece by his weight and substance—to "give his name," as we were to have done to the Iris railways—to be "answerable" in a certain sense, and with an indefinite liability; and it would be discreditably sharp practice to take advantage of his generosity. He never imagined that "amongst friends," and on such a matter, it would come to any transaction of hard cash; all he contemplated was "some arrangement;" while we fear it is beyond a doubt that the only "arrangement" contemplated by our inhuman Secretary is "placing the matter "in the hands" of those functionaries who will speedily conclude it. Lord Palmerston, in short, holds M. Eynard's acceptance, and will present it for payment—a prospect of dreadful reality, against which M. Eynard now appeals to the collective Ministry of Britain. We regret that we can give him but small comfort. We are afraid his case is prejudged. In this commercial country there is a horrible finality attending a bill of exchange, and it is impossible to allege that he has given it without due consideration, when we remember that for six months his munificence has filled the mouths of Europe. He made his own bargain, and must pay his own price; and if £20,000 now strikes him as an awkward figure, we can only trust it will be to his warning in future.

THE QUEEN IN SCOTLAND.—Queen Victoria has set herself down in her Highland lodging at Ardverikie, among the Macphersons. She was welcomed by Cluny Macpherson and his kilted clansmen, and a host of mountaineers, and a Scotch mist. The district is not only remote, but wild: the very house she lives in, compared even to her abode at Blair Atholl, seems to be simple to the degree of almost Spartan bareness. It is as if she had sought the wildest and remotest spot in order to get, not only the most robust deer-stalking for the Prince, but for Her Majesty's absolute seclusion, beyond the reach of tourists and "gentlemen connected with the press." No hope of it: the newspaper reporters are there, describing might and main; and Ardverikie will probably become a Cockney jaunt. But civilization was already struggling with the wildness, vigorously as that survives. The aborigines, it appears, have not yet coined a name for "Queen," whom they can only designate by the inappropriate periphrasis of "the King's wife." How can they compass the designation of the Prince Consort? must they call him the "King's wife's husband?" But they are awakening to modern sentiments. Although the district is one in which stronger traces of Jacobite loyalty remain than anywhere perhaps in the uplands of Scotland, the mountain rigour unbends to the youthful Sovereign; and the Highlanders think it necessary to signify that they waive obtruding the exclusive claims of the Pretender—they notify this in an inscription of "Two in one," signifying that in Queen Victoria's person they obligingly recognize the house of Stuart as well as that of Brunswick. Another sign of the times was a copious admixture, among claymores and shields, of cotton umbrellas. In London the fashion of carrying the umbrella has visibly declined—the effeminate convenience has passed to the hardy Lochaber men. It will next come to the navy, and no sailor will go aloft in a shower without his "four-and-sixpenny cotton."—Spectator.

CAPABILITIES OF A RAILWAY ENGINE.—On Thursday, August 12, the "Essex" locomotive engine brought from Bury St. Edmund's or Stowmarket, to Ipswich, the amazing number of 149 loaded goods waggons at one time, and when the engine reached the Ipswich station, the other extremity of the line of waggons was close to the bridge on the London-road, a distance of nearly a mile! This we (Ipswich Express) believe to be the largest goods train that ever arrived at any station in the kingdom; there was one, we believe, on the Birmingham and Manchester, consisting of 192 empty trucks. On the morning of the same day the "Essex" took 85 loaded carriages or trucks from Ipswich to Stowmarket, a burden of at least 600 tons, and on the following morning it drew 76 loaded waggons from Ipswich to the same town. Some idea may be formed, from the above statement of facts, of the vast capabilities of good locomotive engines, as well as of the importance of the traffic on the Eastern Union line, which will, doubtless, be greatly increased when the line is extended to Norwich.

THE GREATEST CURES OF ANY MEDICINE IN THE GLOBE. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

A LOCAL CURE OF FITS.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Henry Whiting Boot and Shoemaker, Red Bank, Stonequarry, February, 1847.

"SIR,—I have for many years past been troubled with the falling sickness, frequently dropping down at my work or in the street, and could get no relief from any one until I tried Holloway's Pills, and now by the use of them I am completely cured."

"To Mr. J. K. HEYDON"

N.B.—The communication containing the above was received by the wholesale agent at the date given, and was not then published, because the stock of medicines was exhausted; but the extract is now advertised by request, many of Mr. Whiting's neighbours having advised that the public should be made aware of such instances of the wonderful effects of Holloway's medicines. The wholesale agent is further instructed to say, that Mr. Whiting's cure has been completely tested by time, as he has continued in the enjoyment of perfect health ever since.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. T. H. Mate, Storekeeper, Umuttbee, Gundagai, October 24, 1847.

"To Mr Heydon,—Sir, when I was in Sydney last, I bought a few boxes of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, and brought them up to this district; and I learn that their effects have been most wonderfully curative, insomuch that I am daily asked for them, and have now a letter before me that I received from a settler a short distance from this, who states that the pills and ointment that I sent him (Holloway's) have performed wonders with one of his servants who was he says rotten above ground. So great and increasing is the faith in this medicine that I have decided upon sending to you direct for a supply. * * * If you will state the terms of an agency I will apply to you for it, if they suit me, as I feel sure of being able to sell large quantities of the medicines."

The Wholesale Agent begs to state that he has become aware of the many extraordinary cures performed by Professor Holloway's medicines; but he feels of course that he is not at liberty to publish the cases except at the wish of the parties themselves.

A CURE OF A DREADFUL AND DANGEROUS CASE OF ERYSIPELAS.

In the following remarkable case the Lady had been both deaf and blind from the virulence of the complaint.—February 19th, 1847.

Mrs. Gibbons, of Tivoli Place, Cheltenham, was for two years so dreadfully afflicted with Erysipelas that she became (however extraordinary it may appear) both blind and deaf from the severity of the disease, and during the whole of the time she was attended by several of the most eminent medical men in Cheltenham, without receiving any benefit whatever, and, as a last resource, she tried Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which in two months perfectly cured the dreadful complaint, and likewise restored her to health.

Mrs. Stoyle, the very respectable landlady of the Newmarket Inn, Cheltenham, can bear witness to this cure. It can also be authenticated at the Stationer's, No. 10, Arcade, High-street, Cheltenham.

THIS WONDERFUL MEDICINE CAN BE RECOMMENDED WITH THE GREATEST CONFIDENCE FOR ANY OF THE FOLLOWING DISEASES:—

Ague	Dropsy
Asthma	Dysentery
Bilious Complaints	Erysipelas
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities
Bowel Complaints	Fevers of all kinds

TO SETTLERS AND COUNTRY STOREKEEPERS.

MESSRS. JOS. THOMPSON AND SON feeling grateful for the patronage hitherto bestowed by their numerous friends and customers, beg to solicit a continuance of those favours, to merit which they have spared neither trouble nor expense in making such alterations and improvements as would give them greater facilities for the conducting their business, and induce them to keep up a much more varied and extensive stock of goods, suitable for the bush and domestic use, than hitherto they have been enabled to display.

Messrs. J. T. and Son particularly call the attention of settlers and others, whom they have not yet had the pleasure of furnishing with supplies, to the list below, although forming but a small portion of their extensive assortment, they enumerate for the information of the many who have but a few days to spare in completing their purchases, which will be found to comprise almost every useful article, and which, on examination, will prove to be of the very best quality, and at the lowest possible price. Thus described in the Title Deeds:—

"2560 Acres in the county of Northumberland, at Lake Macquarie, commencing at the western extreme of the south boundary line of Captain Raneland's 2560 acres grant, and bounded on the east by the west boundary line of that grant, bearing north 80 chains, and a continued north line of 80 chains; on the north by a west line of 160 chains; on the west by a south line of 160 chains; and on the south by an east line of 160 chains, to the western extreme of the south boundary line of Captain Raneland's 2560 acres grant aforesaid.

THIS FINE FREEHOLD PROPERTY

TOWNSHIP OF DALKEITH, ON THE DALKEITH ESTATE, AND ADJOINING LANDS.

On the margin of the Munmurra the township of Dalkeith has been laid out, which contains already a considerable population. The land and town allotments will be put up in one or more lots to suit purchasers. The main road from Maitland to the Liverpool Plains passes through the township; and, altogether, the property now offered, whether viewed as a good investment for the capitalist, or a convenient homestead for the grazier, is one of the most desirable properties which the auctioneer has had placed in his hands for some time past.

THE TERMS WILL BE EXTREMELY LIBERAL, and to a party buying the whole estate, arrangements could be made for allowing the greater portion of the purchase money to remain at a low rate of interest. 447

In the following, or such other lots as may be determined upon at the time of sale:

Lot 1—Described in the deed of grant as all that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement 1280 acres of land, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being, in the county of Durham, and parish of ———, at the Paterson, in the territory of New South Wales; bounded on the east by the west boundary line of George Adair's sixteen hundred acre farm, being north 210 chains, and a continued north line of 13 chains; on the north by a west line of 120 chains; on the west by a south line of 18 chains to Paterson's River; and on the south-west by Paterson's River downwards to the south-west corner of George Adair's sixteen hundred acre grant.

Lot 2—Described in the deed of grant as all that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement 1600 acres of land, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being in the county of Durham, and parish of ———, at the Paterson, in the said territory of New South Wales; bounded on part of the east by the west boundary line of John Cory's 800 acres, bearing north 108 chains; on part of the south by 21 chains of the north boundary line of the above named farm, bearing east to the river Allyn; on part of the east by the river Allyn, on the north by a west line of 113 chains, on the west by a south line of 210 chains to Paterson's River; and on the remainder of the south and east by Paterson's River downwards to the south-west corner of John Cory's 800 acre farm.

THESE MAGNIFICENT PROPERTIES

The windings of the river give to these estates a large extent of water frontage and

ALLUVIAL FLATS.

A considerable portion of the flats are already cleared and subdivided into farms, 250 acres alone of which are let to which income may easily be doubled by any active individual.

on leases yielding about

Upon lot 2 there is a superior homestead, with all the requisite out-buildings, erected at a cost of £1400.

The estates are most beautifully situated and well sheltered by the surrounding hills; indeed, these freeholds are not only particularly worthy of the attention of the neighbouring landlords, but of all capitalists and settlers desirous of a certain income from landed estates which cannot depreciate in value.

The title is quite unexceptionable, and possession is guaranteed. For further particulars apply to John Smith, Esq., Solicitor for the Mortgagees, O'Connell-street; or to the Auctioneer.

A FIRST-RATE FARM.

About 150 acres of this section are cleared and stumped, and divided into eight paddocks, fifty acres of which were brought into tillage last season, and twenty of them are not yet cropped.

THE ORCHARD

Further particulars of this most valuable property may be had at the Rooms of the Auctioneer, where a plan of the estate may be seen; in the meanwhile, sufficient may be gathered from the foregoing data to show that the valuable lease thereof will prove an independence to the fortunate purchaser, for the great capabilities of the property can only be fairly estimated by personal inspection.
